Graduating Class of 2018

If I could only invite you to two events at Capitol School, I would choose Graduation and the International Festival. These events demonstrate the academic strengths and the uniqueness of our students. Please come to Graduation at 10:00 a.m. on Friday, May 25 at the Bama Theatre.

Second row: Samantha Huggins, Michael Poole, Matt Meyer

Front: Sarah Smith, Josh Fording (Valedictorian) and Austin Hyslop (Salutatorian)

This one hour event features their media presentations as a special way to capture their high school experience. All 10 seniors have enrolled in college classes through Dual Enrollment/Dual Credit. Some earned 33 hours of credit so they have already finished their freshman year. They were accepted to: The Univ. of Alabama, Shelton State, UAB, Amherst, Boston College, Boston University, Northwestern Univ., George Washington, Univ. of Michigan, Washington Univ., Univ. of Colorado, Temple, George Mason Univ., Mississippi State, Univ. of Wisconsin and Virginia Tech. Their scholarship offers total $776,264.
